'Key Sheet' – Animals and Humans

Year Group: 3

Key Content	Key Skills
• Identify that humans and some other animals have skeletons and muscles for support, protection and movement. • To know how muscles and bones work together to create movement. • Identify that animals, including humans, need the right types and amount of nutrition, and that they cannot make their own food; they get nutrition from what they eat. • Comparing length of femur to distance jumped.	• Identify that humans and some other animals have skeletons and muscles for support, protection and movement • Describe how muscles and bones help our bodies to move. • To carry out a fair test using knowledge about skeletons. • To group animals with and without skeletons • To sort foods into different food groups and find out about nutrients that different foods provide.
Key Questions	Key Vocabulary
• Why do animals need a skeleton? • Do all animals have bones inside their body? • How do the different food groups help our bodies to stay healthy?	• Skeleton • Bone • Movement, protection, support • Vertebrate, invertebrate • Muscle • Nutrition • Healthy –recap